From the Priest

Our current study is the book Alive and Loose in the Ordinary: Stories of the Incarnation, by Martha Sterne.

We had a great turn out for our fish fry. We sold approximately 124 plates. Cost is $8.00 for fish, grits, slaw and hush puppies. Get your aprons and appetites ready and come join us! We need volunteers to work in the kitchen and to fry some fish.

Community Café

Greetings Café Folks!

Cooks should arrive at the usual 1PM (or whenever you can get there).

This Wednesday we will be joined by the Café Jammers and I believe that Lowie will be cutting hair, so I am expecting a fairly large crowd. Join us if you can.

It is such a pleasure participating in this ministry with all of you!!

Life Changes, a ministry of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, meets each week at Redeemer to provide encouragement and hope, in a safe environment, for people facing life changes. Changes such as marriage, divorce, job/career changes, retirement, end of life, relationships, physical/mental health events, and relocation impact all of us at various times. The group meets Wednesday evening at 6:00pm in the church Library. All are welcome, regardless of church affiliation. If you, or someone you know, could benefit from these meetings, please come. If you

The Geometry of Life

Episcopal Church of the Redeemer

During the months of March and April, the Artists' Place Gallery at the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer will be exhibiting the works of Renee Hoadley.

Renee writes: My artwork arises from that place deep within, where my rational mathematical side meets and harmonizes with my intuitive artistic side, creating visual images that blend my love of geometry and nature with my love of spiritual, philosophical and psychological explorations of transformation. I attempt to create images that illustrate the interconnectedness of nature, humanity and the cosmos through the use of sacred geometry – a field I've been exploring since 2009.

My artwork often explodes with the full spectrum of colors, in an attempt to symbolize Infinity within the Unity of creation.

I also explore cosmic themes of multidimensionality, life and death, using outer space backgrounds combined with images related to memory, or places and things I love.

I often create paintings using acrylic as well as black light paints, showing two sides of one image - symbolizing the physical and metaphysical sides of reality.

Each painting is an offering to the Divine, meant to inspire others, as I give thanks for the beauty, joy and unity that life has to offer.

The exhibit will be on display from March 3 through April 28 and may be viewed, by appointment, by contacting Rob Bearden at 251-767-8362.

Please join us on Sunday, March 11 from 3:00 until 5:00 for a meet-the-artist reception and viewing in Renee's Honor.
